

Bob's Burgers and Brew

Kennewick,
Washington

Bob's Burgers and Brew is a proposed restaurant at the intersection of SR-395 and Hildebrand Boulevard in Kennewick, Washington.

HDJ is providing civil and geotechnical engineering on this restaurant project which includes associated parking, sidewalks, curb and gutter and landscaping. Landscape design will be done to match

Bob's Burger and Brews - Model

SERVICES

- Civil Engineering
 - Site Grading
 - Infiltration System
- Geotechnical Engineering
 - Soils Investigation

DESIGN FEATURES

- Site Area: 1.28 Acres
- New Development on Southridge Village 1D Pad

New Store Location - Kennewick

previous design for parking lot medians.

Located within the Southridge Village development, Bob's Burgers and Brew is in the permitting and planning stages at this location.

Additionally, Bob's is in discussion to create a plaza/event space off of Hildebrand and SR-395 between an existing building and Bob's Burgers location.